Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 2-12, 18, 20-22, 26-29 and 31-33 are allowable over prior art.

2. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for the indication of the underlined allowable subject matter based on the Amendment filed on June 2, 2011:

As in claims 2 and 26, the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest a data carrier having following feature:

the data carrier having a core layer and an adjacent layer laminated to the core layer. The adjacent layer having an inner layer having an inner surface facing the core layer; the average roughness of the inner surface is about 5  $\mu\text{m}$  to 25  $\mu\text{m}$  so as to result in a wavelength shift of a holographic image reconstructed from the core layer of about 20 nm.

As in claim 20, the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest method of manufacturing a data carrier having following feature:

the data carrier having a core layer and an adjacent layer laminated to the core layer. The adjacent layer having an inner layer having an inner surface facing the core layer; the average roughness of the inner surface is about 5  $\mu\text{m}$  to 25  $\mu\text{m}$  so as to result in a wavelength shift of a holographic image reconstructed from the core layer of about 20 nm.

As in claim 31, the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest a method of manufacturing a data carrier having following feature:

the data carrier having a core layer and an adjacent layer laminated to the core layer; the average roughness of the adjacent layer is about 5  $\mu\text{m}$  to 25  $\mu\text{m}$  so as to result in a wavelength shift of a holographic image reconstructed from the core layer of about 20 nm.

The features indicated above, in combination with the other elements of the claims, are not anticipated by, nor made obvious over, the prior art of record.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
